

I am opposed to the destructive deregulation currently under consideration by the FCC.
The corporatization of media serves this country poorly.
Homogeneity in media is destructive and dangerous.